

filter

Command filter

Type (inline)

Description

filter is a required command in the LIST body content and is used to define the search query that will be run to gather a set of results from the complete set of objects that have been indexed by the Unified Search.

A large number of possible individual parameters can be 'filtered' . Multiple filter commands can be applied in an additive manner, ie the equivalent of an AND operation.

Required
required

Version

see also

Comments

Permission denied.

The original document is available at <https://doc.tiki.org/item298>