We need a post install page, which gives the first steps after a successful install. It will also be useful for people who use an installer like Fantastico.

After changing admin password

Creating new user, adding to admin group, activating a few features...

move all the content to this page?
Initial Configuration

Content below to be refactored

[+]