Live Support

Live support puts you on-call when your users need you. With the click of a button, a user may request help from a live support operator. The live support module automatically opens upon acceptance a chat window between the user and operator.

From here:

- Live Support User
- Module live_support
- PluginLivesupport
- Live Support Admin
- Live Support Details