

External Wikis

External Wiki feature is used to make linking to other Tiki, websites topics easier. Using it you will be able to reuse with minimum work a connection (through a link) to your "network" of Tikis and regularly used websites.

Some examples:

The string on the left are the wikilink or the link shorthand. tw for tiki.org, dev for dev.tiki.org, wq for wikiquote, wd for wiktionary, lq for linuxquestions, wp for wikipedia.

External wiki and site samples set at Doc

---

tw https://tiki.org/$page dev https://dev.tiki.org/$page wq https://en.wikiquote.org/wiki/$page wd
https://en.wiktionary.org/wiki/$page lq https://wiki.linuxquestions.org/wiki/$page wp https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/$page

Simple linkage

To make a link to any external wiki or site above on this site you can use the internal wiki double round brackets syntax with a prefix as "dev:" inside. For instance, to make a link to

<https://dev.tiki.org/Get-code>

you could use:

---

((dev:Get-code))

And it would produce this link:

Get-code

Changing the string displayed

is possible to use a different string or sentence than the page name to create a more descriptive link. Following the example above we want to improve the information the visitor will see. "Get-code" is quite short, "Get-code and join Tiki dev team" is already more explicit.

you could use:

((dev:Download|Get-code and join Tiki dev team))

And it would produce this link:

Get-code and join Tiki dev team

Insert an external wikiÂ reference

You can do that through the link at "Admin > External wikis", that will lead you to tiki-admin_external_wikis.php:

Admin External Wikis •

Create/Edit External Wiki

Name

URL
URL (use $page to be replaced by the page name in the URL example: http://www.example.com/tiki-index.php?page=$page):

Index
[prefix]main, such as tiki_main

Search as  Select Some Options
Leave blank to search using currently active groups.

Save

List external wikiÂ references

From the same tiki-admin_external_wikis.php you can see the list of external wiki references you already introduce them and edit or delete any of them. Below you can see, as a reference, the list of external wikis that we have defined in <http://doc.tiki.org> :
